What is truth said jesting pilate

*opening words of Of Truth, 1625 essay by Francis Bacon. Aldous Huxley's book Jesting Pilate took its epigraph. "What is Truth? said jesting Pilate; and would not stay for an answer", from Bacon's essay Of Truth. From thoughtco.com: " "Of Truth" is the opening essay in the final edition of the philosopher, statesman and jurist Francis Bacon's "Essays or Counsels, Civil and Moral" (1625). In this essay, as associate professor of philosophy Svetozar Minkov points out, Bacon addresses the question of "whether it is worse to lie to others or to oneself—to possess truth (and lie, when necessary, to others) or to think one possesses the truth but be mistaken and hence unintentionally convey falsehoods to both oneself and to others" ("Francis Bacon's 'Inquiry Touching Human Nature,'" 2010). In "Of Truth," Bacon argues that people have a natural inclination to lie to others: "a natural though corrupt love, of the lie itself." God's eternal purpose is redemption, and He works out that eternal purpose in history. The climax to these poems and history itself comes in Isaiah's „Rhapsody of Redemption,“ and „the Song of the Suffering Servant.“ Isaiah chapter fifty-three has been called „the golden passional“ and „the most important text in the Old Testament.“ II. Simpson's murder of his wife and a young man and Osama bin Laden's attack on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon, in addition to „extreme persecution“ to which my late wife and I were subjected at the hands of top Management of the International Monetary Fund. The IMF enjoys immunity from legal process in national courts. Therefore we had to seek justice through the intervention of the U.S. Department of Justice which expressly obstructed justice in our case. The Icelandic government similarly did not respond to my request for its assistance but, at a late stage the „authorities of the Central Bank of Iceland“ authorized the IMF's Administration Department to place on record their support for the Department's defence against my claim for redress through an internal grievance process. The names of 18 U.S. and 10 Icelandic individuals of highest political, financial and academic standing appear in „The Milano Crime Sheet“. This brings to mind Francis Bacon's words immediately preceding the Omega paragraph of his essay Of Truth: „And therefore Mountaigny saith prettily, when he enquired the reason, why the word of the Lie, should be such a Disgrace, and such an Odious Charge? Saith he, if it be well weighed, To say that a man lieth, is as much to say, as that he is brave towards God, and a Coward towards men. “ Calculator for converting letters to cipher values is at:
